COLONIAL THEATRE.

Adventures of Kathlyn, Two Reels,

Greatest Wild Animal Picture. Ever since Kathlyn was present at the compulsory coronation of her sister Winnie she has been planning how to rescue the fair royal prisoner from the grasp of crafty Umballah. Once she conceives the plan of visiting the harem in the guise of a female physician, but is recognized and confined in the harem prison. She is condemned to death by the gigantic Death Car, which rolls down hill over the victims, but her faithful friends, Pundita and others, save her from this frightful ordeal and death. Still Winnie and death. Still Winnie is prisoner. Kathlyn conceives a new plot and sends word that a band of animal trainers await Umballah, pleasure outside the city walls, Winnie as queen insists that a performance be given in the royal arena and, recognizing Kathlyn as the female trainer, insists upon going into the arena. Bruce has arranged previously and at the given sign turns the lions loose into the multitude, and Winnie and the band of friends escape. G. M. Anderson appears in Broncho Billy's Jealousy and there is a Pathe comedy entitled Long May It Wave. Brought to Justice, Kalem, completes the bill.

The department for children, The department for children, or Junior Chautauqua, is one of the most valuable features of, the affair and deserves great praise, delighting and instructing the children and adults also and should be given a prominent place in all these meetings. Do not fall to call the attention of the people of Putnam and vicinity to this part of the Chautauqua work.

In short the affair was very successful, and I am one of many who regret we did not take it up years ago.

Very truly yours, (Signed.) LYMAN TWINING TINGIER, Write "Chautauqua committee Putnam, for all information.

DURHAM, N. C., ENJOYING UNPRECEDENTED PROSPERITY

Durham, N. C., July 27.—Prosperity reigns in this section of the union in a degree never known to the past. The present prosperous conditions are attributed to the high prices that leaf tobacco has brought in the local markets. tobacco has brought in the local mar-kets in recent years. Durham is the heart of the "bright" tobacco district, from which the world receives its sup-ply of leaf for ready-made cigarettes and for genuine "Bull" Durham smok-ing tobacco, used by smokers who roll their own cigarettes, The manufacture of "Bull" Durham tobacco is Durham's leading industry,

Baptist Sunday Scheel Picnic,

The members of the Baptist Sunday school and their friends had a picnic at Bishop's Saturday. The trip was made by trolley and was largely attended. The grounds are ideal for picnicking. The feature of the day was the sports in charge of the Knights of Honor class. The results follow: 100 yard dash for married women, won by Mrs. Martin Davis, prise, box of fancy heir pins; 100 yard dash for young ladles, won by Miss Rosa Wilcox, prize, hair roll; three legged race for young men, won by Charles Babcock and Thomas Gray, won by Kirk Wilcox and John Harris prise all the ice cream their capacity could accommodate; fat man's race, free for all, won by H. T. Wilcox, prize, watch fob: sack race, won by Raymond Wilcox, prize, stickpin and the clasp; 50 yard dash for girls, won by Miss Vera McBroome, prize, string of beads; 50 yard dash for small boys, won by Albert G. Brewster, prize, pocket comb; 100 yard race for boys, won by Richmond P. Gardner, prise, silk tie. The tug of war in which H. T. Willcox's side won was most exciting. Refreshments and a fine day helped to make the outing the success it proved.

SPECIAL PERMIT TO MARRY. Granted Runaway Gladys Chase, 14, and Frederick Darmer, 21.

The following from a Boston paper of Saturday indicates a climax to the Young-Darmer episode, which has been of great interest hereabouts for the past ten days.

Gladys P. Chase, 14 years old, who mysteriously disappeared a week ago last Thursday from the home of her married sister. Mrs. Leon Hope Adams, 41 Dix street, Dorchester Centre, with whom she had been livered. ing, was granted a special permit to marry Frederick W. Darmer, 21, of Somerville, by Judge George of the Suffolk Probate court yesterday.
Young Darmer dropped out of sight the day after Miss Chase. Not long after Miss Chase's departure, however, Darmer, who had been living with his mother at 194 Pearl street, Somerville called at the Adams home in Dorches-ter, and manifested great concern when told that the girl was missing.

Darmer Disappears Also. At that time he insisted that he knew nothing about where she had gone or why she left in such a hurry. This was received with much interest because it was known that the two young people had been very inweeks.

two young people had been very intimate for weeks.

Early the next morning Darmer disappeared and it was surmised that he was with Miss Chase. A few days later the girl was located at the home of Mrs. Mary Devine on Holden street, Upham's Corner. No explanation was given for her flight from home.

Shortly fafter 1 p. m. yesterday Gladys Chase, accompained by Darmer, her father and mother. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney J. Chase, of 9 Belden street Dorchester, and an attorney, visited the probate court and were given a private hearing by Judge George in the lobby.

The young girl was becomingly gowsed in a tailor-made suit of dark blue, with hat to match, and was smiling and happy. She clung to the side of Darmer and they chatted confidently while awaiting for the judge George not only granted a special permit to the girl to marry, although she is a minor, but also granted permission for the live to marry without waiting for the live to marry
